On-line Access to The Registrar General's Directions

A new guide for the preparation and lodgment of Real Property Act dealings known as the Registrar General's Directions for Dealings and updated versions of the Registrar General's Directions for Plans, Community Schemes and Strata Schemes are now available on the LPI website at <http://www.lpi.nsw.gov.au/publications/rgdirections/>

The Registrar General's Directions are a set of comprehensive user reference guides that provide detailed information on the preparation and lodgment of documents and instruments. The Directions have over 1000 hyperlinks that provide easy access to a wide range of practices and procedures, legislation and related information. They provide you with an invaluable source of information on matters such as:

- Preparation of Real Property Act dealings and associated documents,
- Preparation of Deposited Plans, Community Plans and Strata Plans and associated documents and instruments, and
- Land titling.

Users will be alerted to major updates to the Directions. A 'date of update' will also be displayed in the top right hand corner of pages that have been modified.
